With Nazem Kadri scratched as punishment for missing a team meeting, Horachek changed up the lines and broke up the trio of van Riemsdyk, Tyler Bozak and Phil Kessel. It paid off for much of the night. Booth opened the scoring 18:23 into the first period by deking and lifting a backhander past Neuvirth. The goal was Booth’s third in three games after he scored only one in his first 41 this season.

19	order aralen	There's a message on the AltGen website, it says: "Let's stop competing and start co-operating. Let's come together and start creating an alternative future." But is competition all that bad? Surely some healthy rivalry is the best way for us to push ourselves to be better and work harder? Rhiannon sees it differently: "Of course it's useful in an economy to have different companies offering the same services so there is an element of choice, similarly with applying for jobs. But this is extreme – 150 young people applying for one unpaid internship, that's not healthy. That means the talent and skills of a generation are being wasted and not being fairly remunerated. We are suggesting that young people collaborate with each other to create their own businesses, not that the whole economy functions that way."
